

Dr. John Watford
President, SGTC

The opportunity to learn and grow through education is an incredible season of life. And hopefully, with the right amount of curiosity and drive, it is a season that lasts a lifetime. So, whether you are a graduating high school student, current college student or a lifelong learner, consider signing up for the South Georgia Technical College eight-week summer session that begins May 22.

The summer months can be a great time to explore new interests, read exciting books, learn new things, and keep your mind sharp for the adventures ahead. Summer also can be a great opportunity to earn college credits in a relatively short period of time. If you are interested in finding a career, moving up in your current occupation, or open to exploring new opportunities, check out the options offered at South Georgia Tech this summer. Many classes are listed right here in the pages of this booklet.

As Benjamin Franklin once said, "an investment in knowledge pays the best interest." And Malcolm X is credited with acknowledging that "education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today." Start preparing for your future this summer.

The eight-week Summer session at SGTC starts May 22, students have a summer break June 30 – July 4, and finish by July 28. This is an opportunity to catch up or get ahead while you save time and money and enjoy smaller class sizes. All while gaining valuable skills for the career of a lifetime.

South Georgia Tech offers students the "Complete College Experience" with on-campus housing, nationally ranked academic programs, student activities, and intercollegiate athletics. Students can take advantage of all of these opportunities and still be job ready in as little as eight weeks.

Six SGTC students will compete in the National SkillsUSA competition in four categories this summer: Hayden Tucker of Thomaston is the state SkillsUSA winner in aviation maintenance and he will be competing for the national title. SGTC's Andrew Daniel is the national winner from 2024 in that same competition and now has a bright future with Delta.

A'Neya Mack of Plains will represent SGTC in the national SkillsUSA competition in Technical Computer Applications and Blake Archer of Palm Harbor, FL hopes to capture the national Gold medal in CNC3-Axis Milling. Three others, Desirae Cooper of Dawson and Nimsy and Lizury
